New Member Spotlight

The Ashland Business Association is growing! Meet two of our newest members!

:: Patricia M. DeChristopher of DeChristopher Law Office, PLLC, represents clients seeking to navigate local rules and regulations, specializing in land use, zoning, and permitting throughout Massachusetts. After working in law firms, state government, and the corporate world, she started her own firm to help small businesses and individuals find their way through local rules and regulations. Drawing on her diverse background in law, science, and engineering, Patricia brings experience, professionalism, and a focus on client service to every project.

On a personal note, Patricia says: "I moved to Ashland a year ago because of its affordability and convenient location. Once here, I was happy to discover how friendly the community is. What I like most is that everything is convenient to get to and that the community is so friendly. My interests are exploring New England, photography, travel, baking, and gardening."

:: Aaron Ladd of College Solutions is a college counselor who has visited hundreds of college campus. Aaron has 10+ years of coaching experience at the high school and D1 collegiate level for cross country and track & field. He worked at Babson College for five years and brings a wealth of knowledge in the college recruiting process for athletes having recruited high school athletes and guided high school athletes to programs throughout the country.

Aaron adds, "I am co-chair of the Community Preservation Committee. My daughter Stevie Mae was born in May. I am active in the running community as a coach and runner. I am working to run a marathon in 50 states and enjoy traveling throughout the USA."
